

Thank you to all those attending the Girlfriends Getaway Crop.
It promises to be a great time with paper crafting friends.

You will be seated in pods with your own 6 foot table and with your besties. There is assigned seating. I'm trying to get everyone seated near an outlet, but just in case, please byo extension cord and tape. The seating chart will be posted on the ballroom doors.

Doors open at 9 am Friday

and will remain open until 5 pm Sunday.

If you're new to the crop, here's how it goes:

I get to open the doors on Friday morning.

Last one in the room at night goes to the front desk and asks if they would please lock the doors.

First one in the morning asks if the front desk would please unlock the doors.

Your things stay in the room at your places.
